

THE NEW YORK STORE.

We have opened a Beautiful Line of
MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.

Positively the Prettiest, Nobbiest and Best Made
Line of Shirts Ever Shown in Marshall.

THE CORRECT THINGS IN - -

READY-TO-WEAR SHIRT WAISTS,

From 50c Upward.

OUR NEW PATTERNS ARE NOW HERE-McCALL'S THE BEST AND CHEAPEST.

NEW YORK STORE.

Died.

Mrs. C. D. Schuman, aged 72 years, died on Thursday, June 1st, 1896 of paralysis at the home of her nephew, J. C. Boulter, who lives on Blackwater near the iron bridge. Deceased had been a member of the M. F. church South, for 60 years and died happy in the faith. Burial took place at Hazel Grove, Friday, June 2nd.

They Will Be Prosecuted.

1896X.

A crowd from the slums of Marshall came to Slater Monday night for the purpose of breaking up the worship of the Salvation Army. One of their number was arrested and the others given but a few minutes to leave town.

They were some lawless fellows who a few months ago belonged to the Salvation Army, but by their deeds and works have been dropped from its membership.

They came out of Marshall ahead of the Salvation Army crowd and hindered their progress all the way to Slater, once stopping on the way, on a bridge, for half an hour.

The Index is informed that the entire crowd will be prosecuted. They should be, and so hope they will receive the severe punishment they deserve.

Mrs. E. V. Harvey and daughter Nellie left Thursday for their home in Boonville, after a short visit to her parents, M. M. Marmadine and family.

Dr. E. S. Leach received, Saturday, a draft for $1,000 due the late Woodley Jackson from the Home Forum Benefit order of Chicago Illinois.

Will Wisdom and wife, of Arrow Rock, spent Sunday and Monday here the guest of the former's parent, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wisdom.

Complimentary to Miss Smith.

A happy ending to a gay week socially, was the little informal given to Mrs. James Colvert, at her home on Jefferson avenue, Thursday evening, complimentary to Miss Edith Smith, of Sweet Springs, who is the guest of Miss Lulu Landin. An invitation to Mrs. Colvert's is always responded to with pleasure. Everything even to the smallest detail was elegant but charmingly informal, and the evening passed swiftly to the entertained, Charles Chapline and Warren Colvert made some beautiful music on mandolin and guitar. Little Marguerite assisted in the honors of the evening, meeting the guests at the door, and made herself generally useful as well as ornamental. Berries, ice cream and cake were served during the evening.

Those in attendance were Misses Edith Smith, Lulu Landin, Berta Fraulisen, Mabel Fisher, Gertrude

Brown, Edith Jackson, Florian Yeety, Minnie Vaters, Messrs. Harry Fraulisen, Chat Fisher, Pink Warren, Gus Mayer, Clayton Landin, Harry Parsons and Wm. Fisher.

The fact that Miss Mabel Fisher and Miss Smith were schoolmates and had not met for some time made the evening especially pleasant for both.

Free Lunch Daily.

On and after Sunday, April 28th, 1896, we will serve a grand free lunch daily at 10 a. m. America's favorite Buck Beer on tap at Lowenstein & Co's saloon.

Dr. Harris, who was taken suddenly very ill on Wednesday morning, with something like locked bowels, is improving rapidly under the treatment of Dr. Mansur.

L. W. Scott and wife have returned from Boonville, where they attended the commencement exercises of the Kemper School.